CONSTITUTION AND SUN.

From Yesterday's Evening Edition.

ATLANTA, JULY 25, 1873.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT.

All well so far as Heard From.

Through the kindness of Colonel Phillips we are permitted to publish the following gratifying telegram:

FORT GAINES, July 24, 1873.

Col. R. W. Phillips:

All well. I am on my way home.

T. J. PHILLIPS.

Summary of State News.

THOMPSON.

Rev. C. W. Howard, the lecturer for this, the Eighth Congressional District, organized a grange of the Patrons of Husbandry at Thompson on Wednesday last.—Weekly Journal.

DALTON.

We have been blessed with several fine rains during the past week, which were greatly needed by the corn and other crops. ——Wheat threshing is going on pretty lively in this section. The yield is very light, and the quality of the wheat rather poor. North Georgia Citizen.

The fighting season has opened in Dalton with considerable gush. There were three lively encounters within the past few days, and the fun loving public is made happy by the news that others are pending.

The Mayor of Dalton was burglarized the other night. His coat and pants were fished from his bed-room window where they had been hung out to ventilate, and underwent an examination in the back yard. A few brass buttons and a dilapidated hankerchief were abstracted from the pockets, but no greenbacks could be found. The Mayor don't carry them.

ROME.

Tax Receiver Beall met with a serious accident recently by falling through a gap in the Selma Road. His leg was broken, and it is feared that it will have to be amputated. ——The meeting of the citizens for the establishment of a Baptist Female College met on Tuesday, and adjourned on account of the death of the Rev. L. R. Swaltney's child. ——Rufus Rich was tried before the Superior Court on Tuesday for murder, and found not guilty.—Commercial.

SAVANNAH.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen collected at the Isle of Hope on Tuesday afternoon to witness a yacht race and a row-boat race. The first was won by the yacht Anna W. entered by Hugh Waddell, who received a beautiful silver waiter with a glass set. The row-boat race was won by the Alice, Mr. Joe Brown stroke. The prize was a purse of $50.——Three seaman and a boy who had deserted from the German ship Marguerita, loading at Deboy, were found by a hunting party nearly starved in the woods near Warsaw. They were supplied with food and the men again ran off, but the boy was returned to the ship.——A negro, Joseph Tyson, dropped dead in the street of Savannah Tuesday morning. The Coroner's jury said it was consumption.—Advertiser and Republican.

ATHENS.

Law in Athens is painfully uncertain. Last week a white woman and a negro were indicted for living together in a state of fornication. The woman was tried first and acquitted. The negro was tried next and convicted. That is justice with a vengeance. Southern Watchman.

The Athens brass band, during their three days stay at the recent Elberton commencement, did some of the tallest blowing on record. They have returned home in a collapsed condition and will require some careful nursing.

William Howrey was killed the other day by a falling tree near Little Holly Spring, in Hart county.

LAWRENCEVILLE.

The editor of the Herald puts it thusly: "Died, at the residence of A. J. Webb, on the 14th instant, M. P. Cofield, about twenty years of age. A warning to young men." ——There was a railroad meeting near Moses Dilland's in Walton county, last week. There was a considerable crowd in attendance, and about $10,000 subscribed. It is supposed that it is an effort on the part of the Walton county people to divert the Macon and Knoxville railroad from its present chartered route.—Herald.

BARNESVILLE.

On Tuesday afternoon H. J. Land, in resisting arrest by W. P. Bussy, City Marshal, fired two shots with his pistol, and wounded a negro named McDowell in the left shoulder. ——Mr. G. P. Van Alstine, aged 77 years, died in Barnesville on Saturday.—Patriot.

COLUMBUS.

There was something of a difficulty Tuesday morning between Captain J. A. Cody and Captain T. E. Blanchard in front of the store of the latter. Friends separated them before any thing serious happened. The difficulty originated about a private matter. Captain Cody has given a $1,000 bond to keep the peace.—Sun.

Alabama News.

The Supreme Court of Alabama adjourns this week, after a session of two months.

Planters around Montgomery are considerably distressed on account of the rainy and cloudy weather prevailing there now. It is just the time in which the worms and caterpillars luxuriate.

A large number of persons went up from Eufaula on Tuesday to the Clayton County Fair. The grand tournament came off yesterday.

The steamer Farley, Captain Fry, master, passed down yesterday, touching at this wharf for several hours. The exciting rumor prevailed on the streets yesterday, that a party of gentlemen from above were on board, bound for the "Land of Flowers," to settle some misunderstanding that had arisen between them. No particulars.—Eufaula Times.

Weather and Crops.

Financial Chronicle, July 19.]

The past week has been free from storms throughout the South, except slight ones, which were greatly needed. In fact showers are just now desirable, and there is considerable complaint because they have not been more frequent. We have also received some reports of the appearance of caterpillars, but no particular damage has been done by them, nor do we think there is any danger to be feared from that source as long as the dry weather continues. At New Orleans they have had two days' rain; slight showers. At Mobile they have had light rain on three days, but more is needed; crop accounts are conflicting; at some points stands have been damaged by cleaning; there are also reports of caterpillars, but our correspondent considers them of little importance as yet. They have had rain one day at Montgomery; the fields are now clear of weeds and grass, but caterpillars have really appeared, though the injury, if any has been done, is very limited. At Selma it has been warm and dry all the week; the crops are needing rain; caterpillars are also reported, but thus far they are believed to have caused very little damage. It has been warm and dry all the week at Macon. At Columbus they have had some rain, but not enough to do much good; the laborers are working well. It has also been warm and dry at Savannah; crop accounts are more favorable. From Augusta our telegraph states that it is very warm; that they have had rain but not enough to do much good. It rained the early part of the week at Charleston, but has since been clear and pleasant; the crop is developing promisingly. There has been no rain during the week at Memphis, but in the interior there were two partial showers; late cleaned crops are suffering severely from the want of rain; it is now raining. At Nashville it has been warm and dry all the time, with the exception of three showers; more is needed yet; the crop is developing promising. The thermometer at Memphis has averaged 84, Columbus 87, Macon 86, Savannah 85, Mobile 84, Montgomery and Selma 89.

$100,000 GONE

The Man who Wins Draws his Money and Leaves Inside of Half a Day.

From the Louisville Commercial.]

Mr. L. H. Keith, the lucky man who drew the one hundred thousand dollar prize in the Library drawing, accompanied by his father, arrived in the city from Kingston, Mass., yesterday morning, and registered at the Galt House. He was shown around the city and through the Library by Governor Bramlette, and expressed himself highly pleased with all he saw.

Mr. Keith held eleven tickets, which he bought direct from the Library office last March, and, in addition to drawing the big prize, he held two approximation tickets, so that his check was made out for $100,020. He put the money in bank, taking four drafts on Boston of $25,000.

The officers of the Library, members of the press, and a few friends were invited to meet Mr. Keith at the Galt House at 2 o'clock, when they sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Toasts were drank and replied to, and a general good time had.

Mr. Keith and his father left on their return home last night.

Another Tub Ride Out of Sing Sing.

On Thursday morning Charles Joseph, a convict at the prison, was driven out of the yard and hidden in one of the swill-tubs. His escape was discovered a few moments after, but the search has been thus far unsuccessful. His "stripes" were found a short distance from the road, showing that he had obtained a suit of clothes from outside, and the suspicions of many point to the driver of the wagon as having been in collusion with him. Joseph was known to have some money and influential friends of his own class in this city.

It was learned by the writer that a stranger got aboard a northerly-bound train on the same morning, whose description tallies with that of Joseph. The convict bore the euphonious name of "Swill-tub Charley," from his having been connected with a young man named Hoyt in a scrap of a similar character last summer, an account of which appeared some weeks since. He was convicted on the 13th of July, 1870, of grand larceny and was sent "up" by Recorder Hackett for five years. That there is a screw loose somewhere is patent from the fact that it is the duty of the guard to examine all the out going wagons containing refuse. The driver denies all knowledge of the matter.

TO OUR usual stock of Wines and Liquors we have just added an Agency for the sale of the

Crescent Brewery Vienna Beer,

GAFF & CO., Proprietors, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Aurora, Indiana.

This Beer is specially made for shipment South, and is, therefore, the best ever sold in this State. Every keg guaranteed to be good and sound. Orders solicited.

We refer the public to the following correspondence:

GUTHMAN & HAAS, Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, GA., June 18, 1873.

Mr. W. J. Land, City;

DEAR SIR—Messrs. Gaff & CO., of Cincinnati, Ohio, desire us to accept the Agency for the sale of their Crescent Brewery Vienna Beer. We have tried the Beer and find it a pleasant and palatable beverage; but before accepting the sale of it, we want your professional opinion as to its purity. We, therefore, desire you to call at our store and draw a sample from a small lot which we have here. After you have made an analysis, let us know the result.

Respectfully,

GUTHMAN & HAAS.

ATLANTA, GA., July 1, 1873.

Messrs. Guthman & Haas, Atlanta, Ga.:

GENTLEMEN—This will certify that I have made a thorough chemical examination of the "Crescent Brewery" Lager Beer received of you a few days ago. I find the article free from injurious substances, drugs, etc.; the bitter principle being due to pure hop resin. The analysis herewith affixed exhibits the quantities of the most proximate constituents, and compares favorably with the analyses of the best foreign beers and ales.

I am very truly yours,

WM. J. LAND, Analytical Chemist.

TATE SPRINGS,

East Tennessee.

TATE SPRINGS are situated in the beautiful and fertile Bean's Station Valley, one and a half miles from Clinch Mountain, and ten miles from Morristown, on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad, from which point a daily mail is received. They are surrounded by magnificent mountain scenery, in one of the highest and driest sections in East Tennessee, in the immediate vicinity of Chalybeate, Alum, Red, White and Black Sulphur Waters, and, all things considered, we are bound to acknowledge in this, as in all nature, the superior wisdom of the Creator in locating this inestimable blessing to mankind.

MEANS OF ACCESS.

Arrangements have been made with the principal railroad South for round trip tickets, which may be obtained at all the large cities and towns.

DAILY LINE OF HACKS.

Contracts are made with competent and responsible parties to run a daily line of hacks from Morristown to the Springs. The hacks will be new, and of the most comfortable and modern styles, gotten up expressly for this line. They are to meet all passenger trains at the depot, and look after the comfort and accommodation of all persons passing over their line. The hacks make their trips in day time.

Ladies and families traveling alone will be especially looked after and cared for, and their baggage also.

Hacks leave the Turley House immediately after the arrival of trains. By this means any Express or other packages can be conveyed to or from Morristown to the Springs.

ACCOMMODATIONS.

The accommodations are still being extended, so that we hope to be prepared to entertain all of our guests comfortably. Among the new improvements are—

A spacious Ball Room.

A series of Bath Rooms.

The Grounds are much improved.

A Livery Stable well stocked.

The Proprietors claim to have superior advantages over any preceding season, having all their public rooms ready at the opening of the season, a good stock of supplies on hand, and an experienced class of servants employed.

The rooms are principally cottage, with porches, fire places, and wardrobes or closets.

Good Bowling Alleys for gratuitous use of guests. In addition to which we expect to have a Band of Music.

The Proprietors assert their determination to spare no trouble or expense to render guests comfortable and to promote their improvement.

RATES OF BOARD.

The Springs are open for the reception of visitors at all times.

Per Month—June at $40, $12 00 per week, $1 75 per day. July, August and September, each, at $45 00 per month, $13 per week, $2 00 per day. October same as June.

THE WATERS.

The Water is recommended in the cure of all derangements of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, and diseases originating with the Organs.

OUR RESIDENT PHYSICIAN'S SPECIALTIES.

Our resident physician makes a specialty of Catarrh of the Nose, Throat and Wind Pipe, Bronchitis, Asthma and Pulmonary Consumption in its first and second stages. Also many diseases of the Heart, both functional and organic, and of all the diseases for which we recommend the water, using all the modern appliances.

REGULAR SANITARIUM.

We keep a regular Sanitarium during the winter months. Water has the same effects all seasons of the year.

SHIPPING WATER.

We are now shipping large quantities of the water, and it is giving general satisfaction. We deliver it at Morristown Depot in good iron hooped barrels at $5 per barrel.

The trial has only been postponed on account of the absence of Beecher and a number of the committee. In the fall the charges filed against Bowen and Tilton will be fully investigated, and the sessions will probably be held with closed doors.

A droll bit of pleasantry attributing "Beautiful Snow" to Mr. William Winter—of course a jeu d'esprit aimed at his name—has called out a denial from that gentleman through the New York Tribune, in which he claims that "there is something barbaric in the cruel pertinacity with which many persons are laboring to fix the authorship of that melancholy mush upon their innocent fellow-creatures."

A Danbury man's order for his wife's hat is a novelty in its way. She was sick and could not go for it, so he drove in himself. He told the milliner to put on a dollar's worth of parsley, fifty cents' worth of string beans, ten cents' worth of cherries, a few green currants, a beet or two, a little cabbage, and about three slices of turnips, or, if it was too early for turnips, make it two new potatoes instead.

A Word to Clubs.

On Tuesday the names of sixteen new subscribers from a point on the Macon and Western Railroad were sent us in one letter, and yesterday a club came from the lower part of the State. We mention these lists out of a number, as some of the names were difficult to read. Please write name and post-office plainly, and notify us promptly of non-receipt of papers. We are adding more new names to our books than ever before in the history of this journal, and mistakes are very liable to occur.

Georgia Military Institute.

We publish elsewhere an article from the Macon Telegraph and Messenger, because it shows the deep interest being taken in other parts of the State in the convention of ex-Cadets of the Georgia Military Institute, called by Captain John M lledge, President of the ex Cadet Association, September 1st, in this city. This convention, we think, will be a large and enthusiastic meeting of active young men, determined to rebuild the old institution.

Quite a large number of ex-Cadets reside in Atlanta, who will see that this convention is received in a becoming manner.

The Georgia Bonds Reported to be in the Possession of the Broken Brooklyn Trust Company.

In the telegraphic reports of the very sensational matter of the Brooklyn Trust Company reference has been made to certain Georgia railroad bonds held by the company.

We find, by reference to the report of the Bond Committee, that these were Brunswick and Albany Railroad bonds of the second issue. These were the gold State bonds bearing semi-annual interest, that contained on their face no reference to the railroad, but seemed to be a pure State bond.

The Trust Company, by order of its Executive Committee, loaned H. I. Kimball $100,000 or $133,000 of these bonds on the first of January, 1871.

These bonds are among those declared fraudulent and payment refused by the Georgia General Assembly.

The New York Herald says that shortly before the death of Mr. Mills the President of the company, he had completed and signed a contract by which the company was to be relieved of these bonds at fifty cents on the second mortgage and par on the first mortgage.

The Minister from Japan.

The late Japanese minister, Mr. More, was sent to this country several years ago, charged by the great Tycoon, or Micado, or whoever is head man in the paper-muslin country, to faithfully acquire, for use at home, all that pertains to our advanced civilization. He took his master at his word, and alas, he has had so much of our latter-day civilization forced into him at Washington, that his accounts are mixed! He saw the self-styled christian statesmen of the country engaged in a stupendous conspiracy to fleece the Government through the Credit Mobilier, he saw the whole machinery of government in the hands of rings; and to cap the climax, he stayed long enough to see John A. Bingham, who figured in Oakes Ames' memorandum book, sent to represent us at his own court, and Shellabarger, who pocketed his portion of the salary steal, running the reform machine of the civil service; and he simply followed their illustrious example. The Micado, who is a little old-fashioned, ordered him home, with a view of having him commit hari kari; but Mr. Mori has thoroughly learned our civilization, and does not propose to go. He prefers to live in some more highly civilized country on the results of his fiscal grab, according to the most approved Radical practice. At the worst, he only indulged an increased salary steal, which does not, as we all know, disqualify. It is true, he raised his own pay, but did not Bingham, in conjunction with his confederates in Congress and in the White House, do the same?

There is a day of reckoning coming, however, and the people will yet execute a political hari-kari on the men who have betrayed their trusts, or else we mistake the meaning of the recent movements in the South and West. Mr. Mori is unhappily the victim of circumstances. While acquiring the customs and ways of Washington, he has fallen into disfavor at Jeddo, and there seems to be nothing left for him to do but to be naturalized and become a leader of the moral-idea party.

Further Particulars of the Rock Island Railroad Robbery.

Exciting Scenes and Incidents.

All Western Iowa Aroused.

DES MOINES, IOWA, July 22.—A thousand conjectures are current here in regard to the persons who robbed the train on the Rock Island Railroad last night. The most probable one is that the robbery was committed by persons living near where the robbery took place. The valise in which they carried off the money taken from the Express Company's safe was found a few miles south of the wrecked train to-day. Vigilant parties are scouring Southwestern Iowa, and it is confidently believed that the robbers will be caught if they remain within the State. A telegram was received here late to-night, saying that they crossed the B. and M. Railroad at midnight.

TESTIMONY OF THE CONDUCTOR.

Wm. A. Smith, conductor of the ill-fated train, testified to-day, at the coroner's inquest on the body of John Rafferty, the engineer who was killed, that "the train was wrecked 2½ or 3 miles west of Adair station, and 600 700 feet east of Turkey Creek bridge. I was on the smoking car, near the front end. From the noise, I thought the engine was in the ditch, with one or two cars piled upon it. I was thrown under the seat in front of me. I don't remember which side of the car I got out on, but I know that I reached the engine on the north side, and went forward to see who was hurt. The first person I met was one of the masked men near the baggage car door, who pointed a revolver in each hand toward me, and told me to get back, firing at me at the same time. I backed down as far as the sleeping-coach before I was out of his way. There I met Dennis Foley, the fireman. He says, "Billy, Jack is dead." The passengers were in a hubbub, and the women and children were crying, and I told the passenger I thought the masked men were trying to rob the baggage car, and tried to borrow a revolver, but failed. I could still see the man from where I was.

I saw another passing up and down on the opposite side of the train. I think he was firing at me also. Some of the passengers asked me to get into the train, as these men were firing at me and I would be the cause of some of them being killed. I then went into the sleeping car at the rear, still trying to get a revolver, urging the passengers to keep quiet, as these men were robbing the baggage car. I went out of the ladies' car up to the bank, and hence to the engine. Two balls passed through my clothing while I was on the bank.

These shots came from the south side of the train. I did not see men on the north side; then I did not see or hear anything more of the masked men. After the passengers had got quiet, I went forward to investigate the cause of the wreck. At the hind truck of the smoking car, I found that a fishplate had been removed from the rail on the north side, disconnecting a rail at both ends. A rope and strap were tied in the boltholes of the disconnected rail at the west end, and the rope passed under the south rail across the ditch and up into the bank. A piece of rope was also found on the bank, which seems to have been broken from the other. It was a new rope, the size of a common bed-cord. The west end of the loose rail, when I saw it, was only a few inches from the south rail. The hind trucks of the smoking car were still on the track. We had been running 18 or 20 miles an hour.

WHAT THE PASSENGERS SAY.

The passengers on the train report that the scene was terrible, and baffles description. When the crash came all were thrown forward, some entirely off their seats. Then came the recoil, and immediately afterward they heard the firing, but supposed it came from the wreck. Many of the men jumped from the cars and started to go forward, and were ordered back by the robbers, who continued firing, and enforced their commands by terrible oaths and threats. Back they went with a rush, and in the cars found the women and children half crazed with fright, shrieking, crying and fainting, and imploring the men to protect them, and exclaiming "My God! we shall be killed! We shall be killed." The stoutest hearts quailed, and all felt that they were at the mercy of desperadoes.

THE FARMERS ANGRY.

Altogether, it was a scene unprecedented in the history of railroading in this country, as never before has so reckless and daring a scheme been carried to completion.

All Western Iowa is in a fierce excitement. Farmers for miles around are leaving their harvest fields with their families and visiting the scene of the robbery. The engine and baggage cars remain as they were last night. The former is badly wrecked. Superintendent Royce estimates the loss sustained by the company at about $3,000.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Governor Carpenter issued a proclamation to-day offering a reward of $500 for the arrest of each person engaged in the robbery.

MORE MORMONS.

Arrival of One Thousand Recruits for "Zion."

Scenes and Incidents at Castle Garden.

One Dainty Blonde Coquette Shows a Pretty Foot and Ankle.

From the New York Herald, 19th.]

One thousands converts to Mormonism, armed for the greater part, with tin kettles and bedding, arrived at Castle Garden yesterday by the steamer Wisconsin, from Liverpool, on their way to the modern Zion. About two-thirds of the number are from Denmark, Sweden and Norway, the remainder being from the British Isles. In the history of Mormonism no such "parcell," to use a Castle Garden expression, has ever arrived in one vessel as that which landed in our midst yesterday.

The presiding spirit of the immense party which arrived in this city yesterday was Elder Calder, a highly intelligent looking Scotchman, who fixes people with his eye, and who, in years gone by, has officiated as chief secretary to Brigham Young, since which time he has been engaged in disseminating Mormon views and making male and female converts.

The Scandinavians were placed under the orders of Elder Peterson; who is by birth a Swede. In addition to this five missionaries returned in the vessel, three from Scandinavia and two from Great Britain. As soon as the news was flashed up the bay that the Wisconsin, with her large human freight of Mormons, was about entering the bay, Elder William C. Staines, under whose control the whole system of Mormon emigration to this country is conducted, came to receive the Latter Day Saints, and to greet them upon their advent to the New World.

CASTLE GARDEN BY NIGHT.

Towards evening the debarkation of the whole party had been effected from the ocean steamer, and they had the pleasure of treading on terra firma once more. Several of the party had sorely entered the precinct of the rotunda at Castle Garden, when they devoutly threw themselves on the ground and prayed fervently, apparently returning thanks to the Almighty, through Brigham Young, for their safe preservation from the perils of the deep.

THE SCENE IN CASTLE GARDEN.

At about four o'clock the whole of the Saints were garnered together in their enclosure in the rotunda. Men, women, and children camped together in the midst of the floor, with their ship mattresses and sea-chests serving as seats, while in some cunningly devised corner, packed out of sight and sleeping the sleep of the just, reposed at full length the hope of the family, a juvenile Mormon Saint "in futuribus," cutting his teeth.

The remainder of the family were discussing American bread and butter and herrings and five cent pieces, apparently astonished that these commodities varied little in form or flavor from their Old World counterparts.

A MORMON COQUETTE.

Let it not be whispered among the Saints, as they travel eastward, that they have a coquette in their midst, but it is true, and this is her description: Golden haired, large, dreamy blue eyes, a classically oval face, and a native of Delecarlia. She was apparently about the age of susceptible sixteen, and when last seen, was drawing on the daintiest red boot over a neatly stockinged leg, which she showed, with the most childish innocence and naivete, several inches above her foot.

Evidently she came from a land of steady morals, where "Honi soit qui mal y pense" is the rule of the people. Many of the travelers were sleeping, apparently with that begotten of fatigue, or hard benches, glad to escape the noxious fumes and disgusting packing together which take place in the steerage of a crowded ocean steamer. The old people formed curious groups—by old is meant those who are approaching the traditional three score and ten—as they looked at the young faces filled with hope at their side, and thought, doubtless, they had nearly completed their task of enlightening their young ones to forage for themselves.

DEATH OF A LITTLE MORMON.

One little Danish Mormon, of eleven months, was taken to a better world (some Gentiles allege by suicide) on the voyage, falling a victim to a bottle of hair dye, left within its infantile reach, and it was buried at sea. The sights and scenes to be witnessed at Castle Garden on a hot dry day, with the thermometer at the nineties, are curious and unique. Among them may be cited, as having been seen in the Mormon circle yesterday, a pretty Irish girl from county Armagh, a Mormon to-wit, who was dressing herself up in a gorgeous green gown in the sight of all men; near her was a little Norwegian girl, with her head, face and shoulders sparkling with soap, under the influence of an impromptu tubbing. Then, reversing the scene, a little baby dying in its consumptive mother's arms; then a tottering old woman, with a wondrous aldermanic gold chain and crimson gown, without encumbrances, as the advertisements say; then might be seen a poor, half-starved London clerk, with cadaverous cheek and hectic flush, looking like Hogarth's idle apprentice coming out of prison.

With the exception of "the coquette" mentioned there were but few pretty girls among the party, the horny-handed son of toil being the representative class, with his hard-working wife, with her "seven ages" in tow, who had doubtless experienced more of life's thorns than its pleasures. The party seemed to be a most perfectly harmonious one, and all seemed to be on a most fraternal footing. No smoking, chewing or drinking was visible. The Scandinavians are considered by Elder Staines as an excellent class of converts, and work well at agricultural pursuits, and are industrious and frugal.

THE DEPARTURE TO-DAY.

The Saints leave for Utah to-day on the Pennsylvania Central Road, and thence by the Union Pacific to Ogden. From that point they will be conveyed on the Utah Southern Pacific Railroad to Salt Lake City, the entire journey occupying nine days. The cost for each adult passenger is $15.

LORD GORDON GORDON.

His First Operations in this Country—How Beautifully he Humbugged the Northern Pacific Railroad Company—He gets Deadheaded $15,000 Worth.

From the Minneapolis Tribune.]

Gordon Gordon is probably not a lord in fact. His resonant and reverberating name does not appear at all in the British book of heraldry. He encourages the designation of Milor; but when asked in the New York court who his father was, he replied, "Well really, gentlemen, d'ye know I haven't any ideah; I never thought it worth while to inquiah."

"Lord" Gordon came to Minnesota in 1870, direct from Scotland, where he was very much wanted; and his first move was to deposit $20,000 with Mr. Westfall, banker, of this city. "Don't wan't any interest," he said, in answer to a question, "this is just a little pin money I happen to have with me, you know, and a few thousand in interest money is nothing to me, you know. I want a trusty friend; I like you, Mr. Westfall, and I want you to keep this trifle, really, you see, instead of carrying it around in my pockets. I shall send to London for some money soon—a million or so. Would show you credentials, you know, but men of honor," with a lofty wave of his hand, "do not descend to such things." So he came among us and deposited his pin money with Banker Westfall. Of course his lordly generosity was whispered about; how he didn't really make anything at all of being a lord, and how he refused to consider the bagatelle of interest money in a city where a loan of greenbacks brought one per cent. a month. Then he slyly laid his plans for "a haul."

HIS COMMAND OF LANGUAGE.

Gordon bears a close resemblance to Sothern and Dundreary—a smallish face; dark curly hair; no moustaches; heavy "mutton chop" side whiskers; a small nose, retrousse; a man of medium size, who gives the impression of always commanding himself. In acquirements and power of execution he seems to be a sort of Count of Monte Christo—a good judge of men, and a supreme master of "contingencies." He has a wonderful range of languages, and also of language, from the lowest billingsgate to the most elegant and flowery flights, from indecency, obscenity, and profanity to the highest reaches of sentiment and philosophy. He has a sharp contradictory character in all respects. At times in business he is cool and far-sighted, striking right to the center of mark, and again he is puerile as a school boy; sometimes resolute and strong, and again weak and vacillating; sometimes serious, and again volatile. The only element of character in which he is consistent is his entire lack of positive conviction. He was generally polite and even courteous during his short life in Minnesota, but he seemed to have no more moral purpose than a faun or a Yucatan ape.

He had been in Minnesota only a few weeks when it was whispered around that he was planning a purchase on a grand scale of lands along the Northern Pacific road for a colony of poor Scotch immigrants. The land officers of the road interviewed him. "Yes," he said, "I do covet a few thousand acres of your beautiful lands; not for myself—I have more than enough for the remnant of my poor life; but for my beloved sister, for the gratification of her benevolence. She would like to present to some of my old tenants lands in your free republic where they may rear their families in peace and plenty; and to gratify my beautiful sister, I would like to buy a few thousand acres—not many thousand you know—say—say—say, about fifty thousand acres or so—just a little for my poor people."

HE CAPTURES THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

Then there was a buzz! The office of the Northern Pacific was agitated. Here was a Lord—a Lord—who spurned interest money—and he wanted a little bit of land—fifty thousand acres, for benevolent purposes! He would like to inspect it, of course, before purchasing. So they equipped a caravan and led him promptly forth. It was the last of August when the princely retinue started—from St. Paul to the Northern Pacific, under command of Col. Loomis, the deviser and commander of the excursion. Can the glories of that caravan be told? It was equipped for a Lord. There were half a dozen teams with a carriage for Milord, besides the omnibuses, ambulances, etc. There were twelve men to do the manual labor, with a French cook and darkey waiters in linen aprons and white silk gloves, and the royal table was unloaded from the baggage wagons at every meal, and set out with fresh napkins, silver plate and china—unhappily chinaware without the Gordon arms.

Ah, it was gorgeous! Every luxury that the markets of Chicago, St. Paul, and Minneapolis could produce was there; and all the game of the boundless prairie, from woodcock to buffalo. Champagne three times a day. For this creature was a lord, you see—a lord as lofty and unmindful of expenses as Harold Skimpole. When the caravan had skirted Oak Lake, Milord wanted to see Fergus Falls, he longed for Morehead, and when it had digested Morehead, he yearned to visit the glimpses of the moon beyond the Red River. So on, and on, the deluded Loomis pressed, even rowelling the sable waiters, ever cajoling and reproaching the French cook, ever perspiring between anticipation and apprehension, and sending relays of messengers for more potted grouse, more cranberry jelly and more champagne. Meantime he studied the sphinx Milord, and concluded that he was a queer cross between the lofty and the lowly; he was half lord and half lackey; perhaps his father was an English Earl and his mother an Irish chambermaid. In November they came back, half frozen. Milord had selected his fifty thousand acres in Otter Tail and Beaver counties. The Northern Pacific Railroad Company footed the bills—$15,000 for two months!

The absurd farce was at an end. Milrod Gordon did not buy the land for his poor tenants, and he never again mentioned his benevolent sister to anybody!

THE GOSS MURDER.

Important Conclusions of the Coroner.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—An evening telegraph dispatch from Westchester reports that the Coroner of Chester county yesterday visited Athensville and Brynmawr for investigation of the Goss murder case and ascertained many particulars of Goss alias Wilson while residing in those places, and he has arrived at the following conclusions:

It now appears from the evidence thus far taken that Udderhook left Baltimore with $1,500, and was to meet Goss or Wilson in Philadelphia and give him the money, and see him on board a steamer for some European port; but rather than part with the funds, he takes him to the country, murders him, pockets the money and returns to Baltimore.

THE MARKET MEN'S SMASH

How the New York Board of Health has Demolished the Market Stalls.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Notwithstanding legal proceedings by the butchers, poultrymen and fruitmen to avert the demolition of their stalls and booths outside of Washington market, the work of destruction was renewed as early as 7 o'clock this morning in the presence of a large number of police and about two thousand spectators.

The Board of Health had secured the services of 150 special men and at 8 o'clock, hardly a booth was left standing. The owners of the booths showed no fight whatever, and the removal of the debris is being continued in a peaceable manner.

THE LEGAL QUESTION.

The legal question in regard to the removal of the boothes around Washington market will be argued before the Supreme Court Tuesday.

PICNIC FIGHT.

How They Wind Up Frolics in Gotham.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A collision took place last night at the up-town garden, known as the Leon Park, where the military organization, the Knights of Columbia, were holding a picnic. When the programme of dancing was exhausted the band hired for the occasion refused to play more without further pay.

The picknickers insisted on compelling them to play. An angry altercation ensued. Captain McDonald and the police interferred to preserve order, and were assailed by the Knights with clubbed muskets, and the latter used clubs. Five of the Knights were scalp-wounded and taken to the station. Captain McDonald received serious wounds on the leg.

The fight was renewed on the cars, and one rioter who attempted to stab an officer with a bayonet was arrested.

THE SARATOGA RACES.

Tom Bowling Wins the Great Trader Stakes in a Close Race.

SARATOGA, July 24.—The meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association was inaugurated to-day with splendid weather and an excellent track.

The first race for the Trader stakes, of 1¾ miles, for three year olds, was the great event of the day, and created intense excitement. There were 19 nominations, of which the following started: Murdoc, Count Dorsey, Springbrook, Tom Bowling, Fellowcraft, McCormick, Waverly and Free Lance.

Count Dorsey did not get away when the flag fell, and was out of the race from the start.

Bowling won. Springbook, who ran, lapping him for the greater part of the race, at the furlong pole on the home stretch threw his rider. Time, 3:00¾. After the race, a claim of foul riding was made against Tom Bowling's jockey. He claimed that he rode over Springbook, cutting his left fore leg. The judges, after a prolonged consultation, decided against the appeal, and gave the race to Bowling, with Waverley second, Murdoc third. The injury to Springbook is slight.

The second race was for sweepstake for all ages, $50 entrance, pony purse, with $800 added, for 1¼ miles. The following started: Joe Daniels, Wiscard, Strichine, and Ortolan. Strachine won, Joe Daniels second—time 2:11¼.

For the North West, southwest to northwest winds and cloudy or partly cloudy weather.

Sister Killing.

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—Frederick Schultz, living two miles from Pleasant Hill, Nebraska, lately cut off the head of his sister, Mrs. Lackross, with an axe, and then went into a field a short distance from the house and cut his own throat. No cause is assigned for the deed.

The Railroad Robbers Tracked.

ST. LOUIS, July 23.—A dispatch from St. Joseph, Missouri, says that the Iowa train robbers are believed to have been traced into Modoway county, Missouri, and it is thought it will be captured.

THE CROPS.

Important News—Crops Behind—Caterpillars on Hand.

FLORIDA.

AUGUSTA, July 24.—The latest reports from Florida state that the crops generally are two weeks behind last season. Three weeks ago there were heavy rains throughout the State which caused much grass, but the planters were overcoming it when the rain began again last week, doing great damage. The caterpillars have made their appearance throughout Middle and West Florida but as yet have done little harm. The next two weeks will determine the extent of the injury from this source. The experiments made with Paris green as a destroyer proved highly successful. The corn crop is reported good.

ALABAMA.

In Alabama cotton is looking better than it did four or five weeks ago, and if the worm does not interfere the crop will be larger than last year. Worms have made their appearance much earlier than usual and are reported on every plantation. They have done but little damage and the mischief, if any, will come from the third crop of worms, which is expected in three weeks, hence cotton is three weeks later than last year and the indications are that the yield will not be so great. The corn crops are bad on the low lands in consequence of early and heavy rains which drowned out the grains. The uplands will produce

GEORGIA.

The average crop in Georgia. Cotton reports conflicting Southwest Georgia gives an indication of good crops; weed small but healthy and well suited; crops about as early in this section as last year. Middle and Eastern Georgia crops are a good deal later but much better than some time since, and an average yield may be expected. Parts in Eastern Georgia suffered severely from drought, but no general damage sustained. For the past few days heavy rains been general throughout the State, and still seem to prevail, which may improve crops, though it is impossible to say to what extent. The caterpillar scare is about over, and no serious damage is expected from this quarter. The corn crop is generally reported fine, and other cereals turned out well. A good deal of cotton average abandoned on account of grass.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

But few reports have been reported from South Carolina. Heavy and continuous rains in early summer caused an abandonment of the cotton lands, though not to any considerable extent. The crop is backward here as in Alabama, but the latter's accounts are more encouraging, and an average crop perhaps will be made.

Government Sales of Gold.

SOUTH CAROLINA KU-KLUX

A Distinguished South Carolina Delegation Visit Washington to Ask Suspension of Ku-Klux Prosecution and Pardon of Offenders.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS TALKS PEACE.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—A delegation of prominent officials from South Carolina, consisting of Hon. W. D. Porter, Gen. J. B. Kershaw, R. W. Sims and S. A. Durham, accompanied by Assistant Secretary Sawyer, of the treasury, this A. M., waited on Attorney General Williams, requesting all proceedings in that State in reference to the outrages of the Ku-Klux Klan, be suspended, and urging the pardon of those already confined in the Albany penitentiary. They represent that as an organization the Klan has ceased to exist in the State, and that a lenient policy on the part of the government will tend to restore peace and order. Attorney General Williams informed them that it was the policy of the Government to prosecute only aggravated cases, orders having already been given to that effect, and that as soon as the President was fully satisfied that peaceable citizens would be protected in their property and life, a general suspension of prosecution would be desirable.

He also informed the delegation that many Ku Klux prisoners had been pardoned, and pardons would be issued to the others, the most aggravated cases being detained till the last.

The delegation was much pleased with the encouragement given by the Attorney General. The delegation will visit Long Branch and have an interview with President Grant.

South Carolina Finances.

State Treasurer Cardosa Makes a Melancholy Exhibit.

CHARLESTON, July 24.—State Treasurer Cardosa, in an interview with the correspondents of the News and Courier, published to-day, gives a full statement of the financial condition of South Carolina. He says that he hopes the suit of tax payers to have $7,000,000 of conversion bonds declared void, will succeed, and will give the movement whatever aid he can; claims also to be the originator of the suit, inasmuch as it is founded almost wholly on the facts published by him last year, showing that at least $6,000,000 of conversion bonds were issued without any authority of law. In explanation of the emptiness of the State Treasury, Cardoza said, that the appropriations for the year, including old claims, were two and a half millions, and the receipts of the year $1,600,000. So the next fiscal year will begin with a deficit of at least three fourth of a million.

THE LORD GORDON MATTER.

FORT GARY, July 24.—Application has been made before Judge McKeagney to admit the prisoners implicated in the Lord Gordon kidnapping case to bail. The Judge has reserved his decision.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA.

He Visits St. Petersburg This Fall.

VIENNA, July 23.—The Emperor of Austria will go to St. Petersburg in the autumn. The visit is regarded by the press as one of deep political significance.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

MATAMORAS, July 24.—The Federal District Court has pronounced an important decision favorable to importers of merchandise from foreign countries, and denying the right of the government to collect duty of ¼ per cent. per pound on goods imported into the Zona Libra. This decision is based on the provisions of the new tariff, and was made at the protest of Matamoras merchants against exactions of this duty by custom house officials who had persisted in collecting. Although the former tariff under which it was previously imposed has been repealed, the effect of the decision will be to extend the privileges under Zona Libra, and is applicable throughout the free belt.

THE PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP CO.

The Right to Issue Bonds Claimed.

NEW YORK, July 24—At the Pacific Mail Company's meeting to-day, legal advice was taken as to the right of the company to issue bonds. It was the opinion of eminent counsel that, under their charter and the revised statutes, the company has full power to issue bonds for completing the contracts that might be necessary hereafter to them as a business company. Temporary measures were taken to raise money for current expenses. The negotiations for the California loans have been abandoned. President Bradbury was appointed a special committee as to the mode and amount of bonds to be issued, and will report to a future meeting. It is unknown at present whether the bonds will cover all the pending obligations or all the expences incurred in constructing the new steamers.

A COTTON DISASTER.

Destruction of the Eastern North Carolina Cotton Crop.

Norfolk Journal, July 18]

The tidings contained in the letter published below from Gates county, N. C., concerning the cotton crop, is really distressing. The lice, it seems, have invaded the fields and taken complete possession. The probable result will be the total destruction of the cotton crop in all that section from which our correspondent writes, and if he has been correctly informed the same cause is operating to the serious injury of the plants throughout the whole of Eastern North Carolina. There is a deal of bitter experience in the life of a planter, and we doubt if any other pursuit, unless, to make an odious comparison, it be that of the gambler, involves so much painful anxiety, so much suspense, and so many bitter disappointments. It was but a few days ago that we were reading in our exchanges from various parts of North Carolina glowing accounts of the prosperous condition of this staple, and of the prevailing cheerfulness among all classes of people, whose dependence for the very necessaries of life is upon this crop. A failure in that is a failure in everything. It is, but it need not be so. How often have we preached and protested against this practice of staking everything upon the success of one crop.

"GATESVILLE, GATES COUNTY, N. C., July 16, 1873.

"The prospect is alarming in our cotton fields. The lice have taken entire possession, and I hear this is the case in all of Eastern Carolina. If their progress in the destruction of the plant is not providentially impeded, the loss sustained by our persevering farmers will be immense. Not more than ten days since it was generally believed that our most sanguine expectations would be realized at the fall, but, alas! for this bitter disappointment! No wonder if our hearts are sunk in despondency. Corn crops are not very good owing to the scarcity of labor. There has been too much rain through this section for the benefit of crops generally."

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—Mr. Patrick O'Connor, an enterprising merchant and worthy citizen, died at six o'clock yesterday evening in the 66th year of his year. He had been suffering for several weeks with a severe attack of dysentery. He was unostentious in his manners and ardent in his attachments. He was universally esteemed for his probity and kindness.

LET JUSTICE BE DONE.—Mr. Carlton Hillyer, the energetic auditor of the Georgia Railroad, has been investigating for some time, certain charges preferred against certain officials of the road. Mr. Hillyer has discharged his duty fully and well, but his investigations were necessarily ex parte. As some of the officials have been in the service of the road for a score or two of years, it is not to be presumed, that the Directors will not give their old servants a full and fair hearing. It is not the policy of the Georgia Railroad to do so. Knowing the high character of the officials we have not hitherto alluded to the investigation, and only do so to say that the Georgia Railroad will not condemn them unless they are proved guilty, and the public should do the same.

CONVENTION TO ORGANIZE A STATE POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY.—In pursuance of resolutions adopted by the Atlanta Pomological Society, appointing the officers of that Society a committee to call a meeting of those interested in fruit growing in the State of Georgia, for the purpose of organizing a State Pomological Society, we therefore invite all persons in the State desirous of promoting the development of this interest, to assemble at the rooms of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, in the city of Atlanta, August 20th, 1873, at 10 o'clock A. There will be at the same time an exposition of fruits under the auspices of the Atlanta Pomological Society. The railroads entering Atlanta will extend the usual courtesy on such occasions of returning visitors free.

STUPENDOUS ENTERPRISE.

Wonderful Means for Spreading and Spraddle.

Blow, Gabriel, Blow!

The Boldest Splurge Yet in Universal Journalism.

Our readers are well posted upon the case with which we hurl the leading journals of the world into the shade. A New York paper that brags of leading news journalism, stole our idea of giving articles in English and German, and made a terrific splurge over its imitation of our achievement.

The hitherto tame capers of modern journalism we expect to eclipse in a gush of lightning glory.

That same New York paper that copied THE CONSTITUTION's enterprise, in order to outrival us, started the notion of running a special train to carry papers to Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

This flat venture fell dead as it should. The business sense of spending forty times the money for one-fortieth the profit hit the adventurous fellows like a brick-bat, and knocked the thing cold.

There is some gum in the idea however, which, with our usual high pressure enterprise and sublime audacity, we have determined to utilize for the million of readers of THE CONSTITUTION.

We have made arrangements by which we will have telegraphic news from all parts of the world, including the wilds of Africa, from twenty-four to forty-eight hours before the news occurs. This we are aware may be regarded as too daring and too progressive, being the first time such a thing was ever attempted, not only in the South, but in the universe. To such men we say "HANG THE EXPENSE!" we will do it. We have knocked the wind out of opposing combinations, and we expect to keep it up, shooting ahead on all occasions like a double-barrelled hydraulic, back-action, forty-horse power giascutus, the way we have walloped it into some journals has been a caution to Crockett, as well as the admiration of mankind. What news! what pluck! what sublime magnanimity! have been the extorted ejaculation of amazed millions, and the despairing plaint of dumb-struck, dumb founded, and annihilated competitors. Screaming plaudits of exhilirated communities fall upon our triumphant pathway.

In order to get this news to our readers, we have made the following startling arrangements, to which wonder-stricken multitudes of readers have rallied, and will rally with wild and gushing enthusiasm, even as the whangdoodle fleeth to the mountains of Hepsidam and laugheth.

READ AND STAND AMAZED.

We have chartered special trains on every railroad in Georgia to carry the Brobdignagian bundles of our news crammed papers to gaping and thirsty thousands.

Hang the expense!

If this don't do the job, we have fixed for Colonel Hulbert to build us a narrow gauge railway along side of every railroad in the South to tote our papers. Hang the expense!!

We have hired old Wise, of Boston, to run balloons every half hour to carry the news to our European readers. Should this fail, we have contracted to have several lines of ocean cable. If this don't meet the demand we will tunnel under the ocean a four track broad gauge, under-ground railroad to Europe. Hang the expense!!!

In regard to this we will say to our friends, especially along the West Point Road, if on any morning our narrow gauge or ocean cable or special balloon fails to awaken them with its melodious hullaballoo, you can drink Fechter & Mercer's or Guthman & Haas' splendid beer, and charge to us.

Hang the expense!!!!

And what if the balloon busts and we elegantly somersault to old terra? Why—why—that's enterprise; and—and—hang the expense!!!!

The Phillips-Waddell Duel.

As announced in our evening edition, Colonel W. R Phillips, received yesterday morning, a telegram from Mr. T. J. Phillips at Fort Gaines, announcing "all well," and he "was on his way home." No other particulars given.

The Columbus Sun of yesterday gives some facts not contained in our telegram yesterday.

The Farley, with the prospective duelists on board left Eufaula yesterday morning at three o'clock, having remained since five o'clock the previous evening. Telegrams state that unavailing efforts were made at that point to settle the affair.

At Eufaula, we hear that Drs. Johnston and George Grimes, of this city, and Mr. McBryde of Seale, joined the party. It was not expected that the boat would stop at Fort Gaines. Below this point there is no telegraph line, and hence no news can be received until the return boat.

The destination of the parties is Neal's Landing, in Florida, where the challenge will be delivered. The New Jackson, bound up, was expected to reach that point at nine or ten o'clock last night, and reach Fort Gaines this morning about seven. So we may expect some reliable news this morning.

A reported telegram last afternoon that a settlement had been effected, we learn positively from the operators at both offices, was not received nor passed through here.

Guns, pistols and swords, were carried from this place, and it was also the understanding that no allusion to the affair should be made until Neal's Landing should be reached.

It is still strongly hoped that good sense will prevail, and there will be no fight. Major J. F. Waddell is forty-eight years of age and has a wife and seven children. His army record is of the best description. Mr. Thos. J. Phillips is some thirty years of age, has a wife and child. His business is that of a grocer in Atlanta.

The report about their wives having visited Eufaula is wholly untrue.

By reference to our special telegraph column it will be seen that the matter was adjusted without the firing of a shot.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.—We stepped in, a day or two ago, to witness the exercises of the class in eclectic gymnastics, now undergoing instruction—perhaps manipulation would be a better word—at the hands of our esteemed fellow citizen and well-known teacher of youth, Dr. A. L. Hamilton. To those who have visited his school it is wholly unnecessary for us to say we were delighted. The class is composed of the sons and daughters of many of our best citizens, and is respectable as to numbers; but, in view of the valuable results to health and comeliness, it is to be regretted that every child in the city is not a member. We can conceive of nothing more important than the physical training of our children, and especially the females. To the neglect of this duty, more than any other cause, we owe the lamentable fact that fully one half, if not a greater proportion, of our Southern females are life-long invalids after reaching womanhood and taking upon themselves the duties of matrimony. We often shudder in contemplating the spectacle.

Regular exercise and a judicious training of the body afford the only remedy for this crying evil. Physical training is an act founded on sound physiological principles, and Dr. Hamilton has devoted much time and research to selecting the best features from the various systems which now obtain in Europe and in the Northern States of the Union. His exercises embrace the development and perfection of every part of the youthful structure; the muscles, lungs, and even the bones, being trained to symmetry and a proper performance of their respective functions. Stooped and round shoulders, pigeon toes, special distortion (often arising from lack of attention in the teachers of our common and select schools), attenuated limbs, narrow chests, etc., etc., are all treated according to the necessities of each case, and in a manner that is obliged to produce the happiest results. This is obvious to every visitor to the school, and we are convinced that the Doctor's rooms would be crowded if the parents of Atlanta only knew how much of real, substantial, life-long good is there to be obtained for their children.

We have said this much of Dr. Hamilton's school without his knowledge or request, and solely from a sense of duty with the view of bringing more prominently to the attention of our citizens an institution so well calculated to confer blessings on the community. * * *

ON 'CHANGE.—Mr. A. Leyden yesterday exhibited on 'Change samples of ten thousand bushels white wheat from Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mr. John Stephens presided at the meeting.

President Crane called attention to the fact that the Chamber had not established any rules governing the submission of differences between merchants to the Arbitration Committee, and therefore moved the appointment of a committee to report rules to govern such cases at a called meeting of the Chamber Saturday morning.

The motion prevailed, and the chair appointed E. P. Chamberlin, J. N. Dunn, B. E. Crane, W. M. Williams and O. F. Simpson.

President Crane then announced that he would call a full meeting of the Chamber on Saturday at 10 A. M., to consider the report of that committee.

Mr. John Leiper, Sr., of the firm of Leiper, Murray & Co, of St. Louis, and long connected with the house of Leiper & Menafee, of Murfreesboro, was present, and was warmly greeted by his legion of friends.

Mr. John Stephens, of the committee to investigate discriminations on freights from Atlanta to Alabama, reported that the committee had called upon Col. L. P. Grant, Superintendent of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad. Col. Grant met them with great courtesy and assured them he would treat freights to Alabama as through freight. His local rates were as low as possible. He expressed himself as willing to accede to their wishes in the matter, and would endeavor to secure the same results over connecting roads. He would report to the committee in writing.

GEORGIA WESTERN ROAD.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders—Report of President Grant—Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Georgia Western Railroad was held in the Hall of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

There were present: L. P. Grant, President; J. H. James, Vice-President; Secretary and Treasurer, W. P. Orme. Directors—John Collier, Campbell Wallace, A. W. Mitchell, G. W. Adair, A. Leyden, E. Y. Clarke, P. P. Rice.

On the part of Council—Aldermen Dodd, Brotherton and Rice.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and affirmed.

President L. P. Grant submitted

THE ANNUAL REPORT

for the Directors, which was adopted.

OFFICE GEORGIA WESTERN RAILROAD,
ATLANTA, July 24, 1873.

To the Stockholders:

The Directors submit the following report of the condition of the Company:

SUBSCRIPTION TO CAPITAL STOCK.

City of Atlanta	$ 300,000 00
Georgia Railroad Company	250,000 00
Individual subscription	17,200 00
Earned by contractors	16,226 45
	$ 583,426 45

RECEIVED ON SUBSCRIPTION.

From City of Atlanta	$ 205,485 83
From Georgia Railroad Company	4,464 67
From individuals	8,701 00
From contractors in work	16,852 14
	$ 235,877 05

THE EXPENDITURES UP TO JULY FIRST, HAVE BEEN:

For real estate	$ 12,297 75
For right of way	155 70
For office furniture, engineers' instruments, tents, and other property	2,743 58
For grading and masonry	161,881 87
For engineering prior to re organization	13,304 67
For engineering since re-organization	24,053 64
For general expenses	9,834 17
For interest and exchange	297 45
	$ 227,489 (3

This leaves a balance in hand of $8,388.02, which is represented by bonds of the city of Atlanta, and payments on account not closed by regular vouchers.

The directors have delayed the letting of bridge superstructure and cross ties for a more definite understanding of the intention of our citizens as to a further subscription by the city. It would be unwise to spend money for perishable structures and material, unless there is a reasonable assurance that they will be brought into early use.

THE GRADING AND MASONRY

lacks about fifteen per cent. of completion on the first 20 miles. The surveys beyond a definite location have probably equalled 1,000 miles of length.

OUR ROUTE

crosses the general drainage of a country of complex topography until we reach the Chockolocko Valley. Every route suggested, within reasonable limits of distance demands an instrumental survey, unless the topography should be so decidedly marked as to repel the engineer in his explorations. On reaching the Chockolocko the route is more plainly defined. The deflection then becomes one of policy and not of topography.

THE SURVEYS

for comparison of direct route, and that via Talladega will soon be completed, when the Board will lay the subject before the stockholders, if the proposed deflection to Talladega should be deemed admissable by the Board.

FOR GENERAL INFORMATION, EMBRACING THE RESOURCES OF THE ROAD

if constructed, we refer the stockholders to the letter of the President recently published in the city papers.

FUTURE PROSPECTS.

The Directors felt authorized by the city subscription and the general expression of the citizens to place the work under contract to the extent of twenty miles. If the city will increase the subscription as then expected, or to a extent sufficient to purchase twenty miles of iron, we feel confident that the Georgia Railroad Company will furnish a sufficient sum for the completion of ten additional miles, making thirty miles of completed road that will be self-sustaining, and of considerable benefit to the city. This will also give a basis of credit on which to extend the road.

Respectfully summitted by the Directors,
L. P. GRANT. President.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

On motion of Col. John Collier, the Convention proceeded to ballot for officers.

Col. John Collier, Hon. J. H. James and Major A. Leyden, were appointed tellers.

Upon counting out the ballots it was ascertained that the following gentlemen having received a majority of the votes were duly elected:

L. P. Grant, President.

Directors—C. C. Hammock, John Collier, F. P. Rice, John H. James, Campbell Wallace, J. A. Hayden, W. B. Cox, A. W. Mitchell, E. Y. Clarke, G. W. Adair.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THE GEORGIA MILITARY INSTITUTE.—The attention of our readers and all who cherish a just pride in the State of their nativity, is invited to the advertisement of Captain Milledge, looking to the restoration of an institution which, though of comparatively modern origin, has yet added imperishable laurels to the escutcheon of the Commonwealth. When General Sherman advanced his vandal horde upon Atlanta, the Cadets took the field, and in line of battle sided for days in keeping back the invaders. For discipline, drill and esprit du corps, boys though they were in years, they yet commanded the admiration of the whole army. Many of the former graduates too held high positions under the Confederate banner, and illustrated Georgia by their deeds, and wounds, and death, on many a well fought field. Anderson and Harrison, of Chatham; Winn, of Liberty; General P. M. B. Young, and a score of others who could be mentioned, shed a halo of glory about their Alma Mater.

When the bloody Sherman, the fire fiend of the war, drove out our forces from Marietta, his first order was to burn that infernal nest where rebel warriors were hatched and reared. The torch was accordingly quickly applied, and soon the noble college pile was in ashes, and the grassy campus and commanding heights a bleak and desolate ruin.

To-day it is proposed either there, or on some other eligible site, to erect again, with increased splendor and grandeur, the Military College of Georgia as a perpetual nursery of the valor and chivalry of her sons. Last July, fired with this ambition, about forty ex-cadets assembled at Marietta, and organized permanently by electing Captain John Milledge, the worthy scion of a noble stock, chairman of an executive committee, and W. H. Dunwody, Secretary. The object of the association was to perpetuate the traditions of the Institute, and if possible, resurrect and restore it. This is the more necessary, as large numbers of our spirited young men are constantly leaving the State in quest of a military education elsewhere.

The plan proposed was the passage of a bill through the General Assembly incorporating the institution, naming a board of trustees, of which the Governor should be a member ex officio, and donating the sum of $50,000 as a building fund for it. Owing to various causes the bill, when put on its passage, failed by nine votes only.

The delegation from Bibb gave it a harmonious and energetic support. Afterwards the appropriation was stricken out and the act passed. Governor Smith, however, very properly withheld his sanction to it, on the ground that no subsidy had been voted to make it effective. He was warmly in favor of the bill with the appropriation, but believed that its passage unsupported by State patronage would kill off the enterprise hereafter.

It is proposed to call a convention of ex-cadets and professors, to meet in Atlanta on the first of September, to devise ways and means to endow the institution, and secure the co-operation of the Legislature in this important work. Gen. Johnson, Col. Hardeman and many of our best citizens will lend all of their energies to the promotion of this laudable enterprise.

We need not urge upon the members of the Legislature and every patriot son of Georgia, the wisdom and propriety of encouraging, both by word and action, the noble object in view. All must concede its utility and importance, and no niggardly policy or contracted process of reasoning should be allowed to defeat it. We invite the earnest support of the entire press of the State in its behalf, and doubt not that the graduates and ex-cadets of the Institute will also keep the ball in motion until success has been assured.—Macon Telegraph.

MEETING OF EX-CADETS.—At a meeting of the Atlanta ex-Cadets of the Georgia Military Institute, held last night at old Concordia Hall, Lieutenant C. W. Henderson was called to the chair, and B. H. Austin was requested to act as Secretary.

Captain Milledge explained to the meeting that as President of the ex-Cadet Association he had called a convention of the ex-Cadets. That from all he could learn from different parts of the State the convention promised to be a large and enthusiastic one, and suggested that the ex-Cadets residing in Atlanta should make some preparation looking to the entertainment of the convention. Whereupon, on motion of T. M. Elyea, a committee of thirteen resident ex-Cadets were appointed as a committee of management, subject to the call of Captain E. P. Howell, Chairman. The committee are as follows:

Evan P. Howell, Chairman; Horace P. Clarke, John A. Fitten, C. W. Henderson, J. B. Bridges, T. M. Elyea, B. H. Austin, Joseph Thompson, Jr., John A. Grant, M. O. Markham, J. W. Chester, Joe Scrutchins.

The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of its Chairman.

STRANGE EXPERIENCE OF A PARDONED CONVICT.

Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life Before the War and Escapes—He is Captured After the War and Returned—His Pardon by Governor Smith, Etc.

RICHARD RAINES' FIRST APPEARANCE IN SANDERSVILLE.

A number of years before the war the hero of this sketch, Richard Raines, and his brother made their first appearance in the little town of Sandersville. They came there to make a living, and went to work with a vigor that showed they intended to do it. Richard Raines engaged himself as an overseer, and followed this business for a number of years, each year saving some money. During this time he bore the reputation of being a sober, industrious man, and there were few men more highly spoken of in his community.

Finally Raines became overseer for a well to do farmer living near Sandersville. He remained upon this place for a couple of years, and by that time had accumulated sufficient money to ask for, and obtain the hand of one of his employer's daughters. The young lady's brothers, it seems, did not favor the match, and after the marriage had very little to do with the husband. Raines and his brother about this time bought together a farm near Sandersville and moved upon it. His brother soon after desiring to sell, Raines bought him out and became sole owner of the place. He was now quite a prosperous man. He cultivated his place successfully, bought a number of negroes and seemed to be on a fair road to a handsome fortune.

HIS WIFE'S DEATH, AND SUSPECTED MURDER.

Shortly after Raines became sole possessor of this farm, his wife died very suddenly and under circumstances that aroused suspicions that all was not right. The suspicion increased until Raines was arrested and prosecuted for murder, his brother-in-law especially taking an active part. Raines' explanation of his wife's death was that she died of cramp colic; that on the morning before she complained of being unwell, and that he had mixed together some whisky and water and given it to her to drink; that this was all that he he had given her; and that it contained no poison, for he himself and their children had drank some before it was offered to her. Dr. Dugas, of Augusta, was sent for, the body of the woman exhumed, and a post mortem examination was made of the stomach.

The Doctor testified on the trial that he believed he had detected traces of arsenic, but would not swear to the fact positively. The feeling in the community had been very strongly aroused against Raines, and although the evidence was entirely circumstantial, and although portions of it were very weak, the jury saw fit to find the prisoner guilty and recommended him to mercy. The court sentenced the prisoner to hard labor for life. He was confined in jail at Sandersville for three years, while his case was undergoing investigation, and expended every cent he possessed in his defense. In 1861, he was sent under guard to the penitentiary at Milledgeville.

HIS ESCAPE FROM THE PENITENTIARY.

Governor Brown, towards the close of the war, permitted all of the convicts to volunteer in the Confederate Army, excepting those who were sentenced for life. Raines was left behind with six others. He and comrades remained with the keepers for some time after this, and were moved several times from place to place to avoid capture by the enemy. At length, amid the chaos that attended the close of the war, the penitentiary was left unguarded, and one day Raines quietly walked out.

After drifting about in the lower part of the State for some time, our hero finally landed in Florida. Here he went to work and made a little money, and married a wife.

He had not been living in Florida very long before the fact of his presence there became known to certain parties in Sandersville. One of them thinking that he could make a ten strike by getting a large reward offered for his apprehension as an escaped convict, made the fact known to the Governor. We are informed, however, that from what was communicated to him, Governor Smith was under the impression that the crime and convict on had occurred subsequent to the war.

A reward of $250 was offered for him, and about last January he was arrested, brought here, and turned over to the keeper of the convicts. By him, he was placed at work on the Georgia Western Railroad, and remained there until he received his pardon yesterday. During the six months that he has remained here, his conduct has been exemplary in every respect. Mr. Alexander, the keeper, became interested in his behalf, and was kind enough to give him much assistance in procuring his release.

In the meantime his neighbors in Florida prepared a long petition to Governor Smith, setting forth substantially the facts we have given above, had it signed by some of the best men in the county, and forwarded it. Moved by these considerations, Governor Smith, on Wednesday, granted him a full and free pardon. He was discharged yesterday and came down to Atlanta. He is very poor, and some charitable persons here have furnished him with a little money and clothing. He will remain in the city to-day, as Governor Smith has expressed a desire to see him before he goes back to Florida.

Raines is now quite an old man, above sixty years of age, but is as joyful as a young child over his liberty. His has certainly been a strange and hard fate, and we are sincerely glad that the Governor saw fit to exercise clemency in his behalf.

AN UNPREJUDICED PHYSICIAN INTERVIEWED.

Bold Opinions Truly Expressed.

Several cautious individuals having done us the honor to invite an expression of opinion in these columns on the properties of the much talked of tonic known as Plantation Bitters, we have taken the pains to obtain from a distinguished physician whose ability and integrity of purpose no one will venture to question, what may fairly be deemed a conclusive answer to the questions of our correspondents Dr. Elias Kennedy Whitmarsh, as a surgeon, pathologist and chemist, has few superiors west of the Alleghanies, and the following conversation, which occurred a few days ago between that gentleman and one of our staff, is offered without comment, for the information of "whom it may concern:"

Reporter—Have you any objection to state your views in relation to a medicinal preparation which has obtained great celebrity in this country? The object is to ascertain whether its reputation is deserved or not.

Dr. Whitmarsh—If I know anything about the article, I'll tell you what I think of it. How is it named?

Reporter—Plantation Bitters.

Dr. Whitmarsh—Well, it is a wholesome vegetable tonic.

Reporter—Anything else?

Dr. Whitmarsh.—Yes, it has a mild aperient property, and produces a salutary effect upon the liver when that organ is diseased.

Reporter.—It contains alcohol I understand—Santa Croix Rum.

Dr. Whitmarsh.—Of course it contains a diffusive stimulant. If it did not its medicinal ingredients would be comparatively inert. They are rendered operative by the alcoholic principle.

Reporter—Supposing that theory to be correct, is Santa Croix Rum a good article for that purpose?

Dr. Whitmarsh—The best, I think. It is more nutritious and far less exciting than the spirits made from grapes or grain.

Reporter—But are stimulants really necessary at all in medical treatment?

Dr. Whitmarsh—Sir, if you had ever practiced medicine you would not ask the question. They are an essential portion of the materia medica. Every intelligent member of the profession knows that. The physician who denies it is either a hypocrite or a fool.

Reporter—Do you consider a medicated stimulant like the Plantation Bitters preferable to simple alcohol? In other words, would the Santa Croix Rum be as useful without the other ingredients as with them

Dr. Whitmarsh.—Certainly not. Among those ingredients are Extract of Dandelion, one of the finest anti-bilious medicines I know of; Calisaya Bark, of all tonics, the best; and Chamomile, an admirable stomachic. The remedial powers of these curatives is increased probably tenfold by the nutritive stimulant with which they are incorporated.

Reporter.—You seem to have a high opinion of the Bitters.

Dr. Whitmarsh.—I simply state facts, sir. You must draw your own conclusions.

Reporter—May I ask if you ever prescribed Plantation Bitters for your patients?

Dr. Whitmarsh—I do, frequently. All that I have said to you is founded on my own experience. I never make positive statements on unsubstantial grounds.

Reporter—I am sure of that. Excuse me for having trespassed so long on your valuable time. Good evening.—Times.

THE COURTS.

W. A. Ward Before the Ordinary Yesterday—He is Discharged but Immediately Re-Arrested—Commissioner Conley Hears a Revenue Case Etc.

The Court of Ordinary.

The most interesting case that agitated our legal world yesterday was a habeas corpus, tried by our efficient Ordinary, Judge Pittman, in the afternoon. The facts in this case are about as follows: Some two months ago Mr. W. A. Ward, a well known character in this city, was arrested and tried before Justices Butt and Sasseen upon a warrant charging him with passing a counterfeit bill in Walton county. The case was fully investigated and the magistrates decided to hold the prisoner to answer this charge.

The commitment was made out in due form, but addressed to the jailor of Walton county, requiring him to keep the defendant safely, etc. Ward was put in jail here under that authority, and kept there until yesterday. The prisoner, before Judge Pittman, demanded his discharge, in the first place, upon the ground that a commitment to the jailor of Walton county furnished no authority to the jailor of Fulton county to hold him, and also that he had already been imprisoned an unreasonable length of time, and that he could not be confined here to await the convenience of the officials of Walton county to send some one after him. After an elaborate hearing from Mr J. Thomas Finley in behalf of the petitioner, and from Mr. Marshal J Clark, who represented the State, Judge Pittman decided to discharge the prisoner.

Ward's joy at his release, however, was not of a long duration, for he was immediately rearrested under another warrant charging the same offense, and carried back to jail. He will be kept there a short time, and if the officers of Walton county do not send after him he will be discharged.

Another habeas corpus case is pending before Judge Pittman, and will probably be tried to-day. We refrain by request from mentioning names.

The Commissioner's Court.

Commissioner John L. Conley gave a hearing yesterday to G. W. Berryhill, of Milton county. He was arrested and brought here charged with working in an unregistered still. After hearing the facts in the case, the Commissioner reserved his decision, and will deliver it to-day. Mr. Tollison appeared for the defendant, George F. Thomas for the government.

The Justices' Courts.

None of these tribunals did any criminal business yesterday, but more profitably, we hope, occupied their time with their civil suits. Justice Munday was so oppressed with this kind of business that he failed to greet us with that beaming smile which usually illumines his placid countenance. We were glad to see him so well patronized.

Justice Hammond spent a goodly part of the day in hearing a spirited controversy between two sewing machine companies. We did not take the names or facts, as these kind of cases usually make heavy reading.

Station House Report.

The Station House was quite full of lodgers last night. In fact it was exceedingly full, considering the dullness of the times. There were no State arrests, but the deficiency in this respect was more than balanced by fifteen city cases. The prisoners are variegated in hues and sexes. The offenses are strikingly similar. Only twelve were found drunk and disorderly; one sold whisky in unnecessarily, and, in fact, in unlawful quantities; one mistook a tree for a hitching post, and thereby got his horses into trouble and himself involved with the Recorder; and another retailed cheap benzine and cheap cigars, on the very day of the week that he ought not to have done so. Greenbacks will flow this morning.

PERSONAL.—Col. N. J. Hammond, Attorney-General, has returned to the city, but is unable to leave his room. Those wishing to see him on business can do so by calling at his residence, No. 178 Peachtree street.

Governor Smith attended the County Fair at Powder Springs yesterday.

The following were among the arrivals at the National last night: J. N. Phinney, Philadelphia; J. I. Cott, J. F. Shipp, Social Circle; T. J. Harwell, New York; G. J. Hickman, Ala.; D. T. White, J. M. Anderson, Laurens, South Carolina; Mrs. L. Tyler, Mrs. Wells, Georgia.

THE DIRECTORS OF THE GEORGIA WESTERN.—In justice to all parties we give the following part of the proceedings at the meeting of the stockholders of the Georgia Western Railroad yesterday:

Alderman Dodd, from the committee on the part of the City Council, explained that while he did not object to the Board of Directors, and endorsed them, he did so with the exception of Alderman Rice. His objection to Alderman Rice was that he was a member of Council, and of the committee, and he did not think ought to vote himself into office,

Alderman Brotherton, from the same committee stated that he voted for Alderman Rice because the ex President and present President of the road esteemed Alderman Rice as one of the most efficient members of the Board; because he was a stockholder; and because he believed he would make a safe man for both the city and the road.

Alderman Rice stated he was running as a stockholder, and not as member of Council. If a single stockholder objected, however, he would resign at once after being elected.

MIDSUMMER MALARIA.—At this season the sun liberates from the soil the water and the filth of cities immense quantities of unwholesome gasses which the strongest can scarcely inhale with impunity, and which develop the most distressing diseases in the weak and feeble. It is, therefore, of paramount importance to invigorate the body in hot weather. Vitalize and strengthen the stomach and the nervous system with at least two doses per day of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and you will be sure to escape the fits of indigestion, attacks of billious colic, sick headaches, diarrhoeas and dysenteries which are so common at this season. Be prudent. A little care and forecast exercised now may prevent your being prostrated by remittent or intermittent fever, or by chronic bowel or liver complaint throughot the fall. When vigor is oozing out of every pore under an almost vertical sun, this genial vegetable tonic supplies to the nervous system an aliment which enables it to withstand the drain.

Giant Powder.

From the Virginia City Chronicle]

Chemistry itself is at a loss to estimate the power of nitro-glycerine, and yet this new agent of death is twenty times stronger [illegible] able to form a faint conception of the danger of such a preparation we will give a brief description of the process by which nitro-glycerine, giant and Hercules powder are supposed to be manufactured, and of the extreme caution necessary in their manufacture.

In the manufacture of nitro-glycerine two tubes, each about a quarter of an inch in diamater and six inches in length, lead into a single tube of double their capacity but of the same length. Nitric acid is introduced into one and sulphuric acid into the other of these small tubes. The large tube contains glycerine. The two acids are then forced quite gradually into the glycerine, and the chemical combination thus forms an explosive of incalculable power. So powerful and dangerous is this article that not an ounce of it is allowed in the manufactory, while this little tube, six inches long and half an inch in diamater, as being filled, and this tube is kept constantly swathed in ice during the process. To make giant powder, this nitro-glycerine is allowed to drip upon a clay (similar to a meerschaum) imported from Germany. The clay is the only perfect absorbent glycerine known. As Hercules powder is darker, it is believed that that explosive is manufactured by the same process, charcoal, an imperfect absorbent being used instead of said quality of clay. If, in the manufacture of nitro-glycerine, a strong tube is kept swathed in ice, and quantity of the liquid only six inches in length and half an inch in diameter is allowed in the building at the same time, no wonder that General Von Bokkelen, with his preparation twenty per cent. more powerful, remarked that he would have it handled thermometer in hand.

Bustles.

We are interested to learn from a journal devoted to manufacturing interests, that "ten million dozen bustles are annually made in this country." We have, then, three bustles coming to us, and as we never wear that many at a time, the other two are at the disposal of any man who wants them. Indeed, we are not particularly anxious to retain even one, and if anybody knows of a poor creature upon whom the iron hand of ill-fortune is harshly laid, and who, in the midst of bitter and cruel poverty, sits shivering for want of a bustle or two to keep out the pitiless cold, that unhappy child of misfortune can have all three of ours. This kind of generous self-sacrifice, we know, is rare, but it is a characteristic us. We could not bear to wear three bustles while the soul of a suffering fellow-creature was filled with an intense and hopeless yearning for one. The amount of joy we get out of an adjustable bustle is nothing when compared to the satisfaction we obtain from helping the poor. If we had a bustle as big as a skating rink, we would rather give it to some forlorn and desolate orphan any time than wear it and let the orphan suffer.—Saturday Evening Post.

A Triangular Fight.

A sow, a pointer puppy and a goat had war out State street yesterday evening. The puppy had brought the sow to bay, and was barking furiously, when the goat, mistaking the meaning of the puppy, walked up behind him, vaulted into the air, and came down, head on, just where the pup's tail sprouts. The puppy went whizzing some fifteen feet beyond the sow, uttered a surprised kind of yelp,

"And stretching forward free and far, Sought the wild heaths of"— the commons. The charge sent the goat near to the sow, and when she came broad side at the goat; the goat again went up for headway, and came down on the sow's ear. The sow, imparting some variety to the noises in the puppy's wake, started after and the goat resumed the mastication of a newspaper and a hoop skirt.—N. A. Ledger-Standard.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

The startling drawback on nearly all medicinal agents has ever been that in their process of purgation and purification they have also debilitated the system. To obviate this difficulty physicians have long sought for the agent that would

PURGE, PURIFY AND STRENGTHEN

At one and the same time.

Their research has at last been rewarded by a discovery which full realizes the fondest desires of the medical faculty, and which is justly regarded as the most important triumph that Pharmacy has ever achieved The important desideratum is

Dr. Tutt's Vegetable Liver Pill.

Which purify the blood and remove all corrupt humors and unhealthy accumulations from the body, and yet produces no weakness or lassitude whatever, but on the contrary tones the stomach, and invigorates the body during the progress of their operation. They unite the heretofore irreconcilable qualities of a STRENGTHENING PUGATIVE and PURIFYING TONIC.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are the most active and searching medicine in existence. They at once attack the very root of diseases, and their action is so prompt that in an hour or two after they are taken the patient is aware of their good effects. They may be taken at any time without restraint of diet or occupation; they produce neither nausea, griping or debility, and as a family medicine they have no rival. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all Druggists. Principal office, 18 and 20 Platt St. New York.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA
BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the Most Powerful Cleanser, strengthener and remover of Glandular Obstructions known to Materia Medica.

It is specially adapted to constitutions "worn down" and debilitated by the warm weather of Spring and Summer, when the blood is not in active circulation, consequently gathering impurities from sluggishness and imperfect action of the secretive organs, and is manifested by Tumors, Eruptions, Blotches, Boils, Pustules, Scrofula, etc., etc.

When weary and languid from overwork, and dullness, drowziness and inertia take the place of energy and vigor, the system needs a Tonic to build it up and help the Vital Forces to regain their recuperative power.

In the heat of Summer, frequently the Liver and Spleen do not properly perform their functions; the Uterine and Urinary Organs are inactive, producing weakness of the stomach and intestines and a predisposition to bilious derangement.

DR. WELLS'
EXTRACT OF JURRUBEBA

is prepared directly from the SOUTH AMERICAN PLANT, and is peculiarly suited to all these difficulties: it will cleanse the VITIATED BLOOD, strengthen the LIFE-GIVING POWERS, and REMOVE ALL OBSTRUCTIONS from IMPAIRED AND ENFEEBLED Organs.

It should be freely taken, as Jurubeba is pronounced by medical writers the most efficient PURIFIER, TONIC and DEOBSTRUENT known in the whole range of medicinal plants.

Its operation and action appear to be a specific if not infallible. Nothing has ever been offered to the public as a cure for the above diseases that is its equal, which by their drain upon the bowels has so often proved fatal, and by having a bottle of the SOUTHERN REMEDY in your house and take or give it on first symptoms, you need not have fears of the much dreaded epidemic, Cholera.
